

First Ward.—A meeting of the Democratic Wings of the First Ward, will be held at the Broadest corner of Broad and Pearl-streets, this evening, November 2, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of the Committee on Nominations for the County, and two Senators for the First District; also, to transact any other business that may be deemed requisite for the action of our friends. A general attendance is requested and expected. By order of the Executive Committee.
OLIVER COBB, Chairman.

OTTIS W. VAN TUVEL, Secretary. 21

Eight Ward.—The Democratic Wings of the Second and Third Districts, in favor of the General and State Administrators, are requested to meet at the Tivoli House, corner of Varick and Charlton streets, on Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, to respond to the Nominations of Senators and Members of Congress to be supported at the ensuing election. By order of the Ward Committee.
JAS. T. M. BLEAKLEY, Chairman.

W. J. VAN BUREN, 22 Secretary.
H. A. STOCKBERGER, 22 Secretary.

Liberty Boys to the Rescue!—LIBERTY NOMINATIONS.—Principles, not Men!—In favor of the right of Petition, the right of Free Discussion, and the Liberty of the Press. In favor of Volunteer Labor in a transitio[n] to Compulsory, with just recognition, together with a decent compensation for honest labor, compared with Capitalist Labor of State Prison. In favor of the people, regardless of private interest or personal organization.

Resolved, That we have the fullst confidence in the talents and integrity of those who have been nominated for the Assembly of this State, by the Wing County Convention, and that in giving our support to men who have been selected from amongst ourselves we may be sure that they will be true to their trust, and will answer the expectations of the People, regardless of private interest or personal organization.

Resolved, That in the coming Election the Whigs of New York have to oppose the same and oppose against them who have been contending for the last two years —an enemy deceitful even in peace, and utterly unprincipled in open battle; and carry on whose professions are fair, but whose principles, if carried out, would interfere greatly with the foundations of our government and turn us from our free institutions into those of a reactionary and unprincipled monarchy.

Resolved, That in selecting our candidates for the Assembly we are to take the most course to put an end to the old system of employing convicts and felons in our State Prisons in those offices which are duly and honorably filled by the people; but the responsibility of the mechanics, and in the pursuit of the objects of the Whigs, more especially those now called Slave, who may be brought or sent into the Free States. In favor of the Peonage Rights of the People of the North, in favor of the Recall of the 21st Article of the House of Representatives. In favor of the legitimate use of the U. S. Mail for the transportation of such information as is desired by the People; and in favor of Intelligence and Virtue predominating over Ignorance and Brute Force.
Opposed to the Slaveholders who are superannuated or wearing death, or to the rest of colored population of the South for individual benefit, say to the number of 1,500 annually, while the increase of slaves, solely induced by the system of breeding for traffic, amounts to 260,000 in the same time.

For Senators,
ARTHUR TAPPAN,
HORACE DRESDEN,
For Assembly,
Leonard Gibbs,
Anthony Lane,
John H. Hinman,
Charles Fox,
Thomas F. Field,
George R. Barker,
John W. Tracy. 22

Third Ward.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic Wings of the Seventeenth Ward, held at the Henry Clay House, on the evening of Monday, the 1st inst., 1841, called to respond to the nominations adopted at the Democratic Wing County Meeting, held on Friday evening last; Jacob Acker was called to the Chair and George W. Trues and Isaac Dayton were elected Vice Presidents, and Walter K. Penny and Josiah Herkirk were chosen Secretaries.

The call of the meeting having been read, the Delegates to the County Convention to nominate Candidates for the Democratic Party, to the effect that Mr. FREDERICK PLINTZ was called to the Chair, OLIVER H. JONES and JAMES D. HOAG were appointed Vice Presidents, and WALTER K. PENNY and JOSIAH HERKIRK were chosen Secretaries.

After which the following resolutions were adopted—Resolved, That the Wings of the Third Ward, adhering with undying affection to the true principles of the government declare themselves still determined to battle the enemies of freedom and democracy; that with no faltering step or wavering heart, do they advance to the coming contest while their country, their honor, and their dearest rights, demand that they should gallantly rush onward with the field for principle, for virtue, and for dread.

Resolved, That we do approve the nomination of Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin; that our Senatorial Convention has proved itself worthy of our highest trust; that our Candidates honor alike our party and our City, and that we will evince our feelings on Wednesday next, in the ballot box, by being the foremost in the cause of the Whig Party, and none other.

On motion, a Vigilance Committee was appointed.

On motion, Resolved, That this proceeding of this meeting be published in the Tribune, Courier, and Express.

On motion, adjourned to march in procession to the County Meeting at National Hall.

PETER S. TITUS, Chairman.

Wm. POWERS, Vice President.

Wm. Jones, Jr., Secretary. 22

Seventeenth Ward.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic Wings of the Seventeenth Ward, held at the Henry Clay House, on the evening of Monday, the 1st inst., 1841, called to respond to the nominations adopted at the Democratic Wing County Meeting, held on Friday evening last; Jacob Acker was called to the Chair and George W. Trues and Isaac Dayton were elected Vice Presidents, and Walter K. Penny and Josiah Herkirk were chosen Secretaries.

The call of the meeting was then read.

The names of the candidates for Senate and Assembly were then, on motion, read to the meeting.

Mr. Herman M. Remond addressed the meeting on the subject of the Slaveholding Monopoly, and moved the adoption of the ticket nominated at the County Meeting.

The Senatorial and Assembly nominations were then unanimously approved and adopted.

The following resolutions were then proposed to the meeting and unanimously adopted—

Resolved, That as Democratic Wings, we go for Principles, not Men! United we stand.

Resolved, That we do most heartily and cordially approve of the nominations of Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin.

Resolved, That the nomination for Members of the Assembly of the ticket headed by Joseph Tucker meets our entire and social approbation, and that we hereby give ourselves to each and every candidate our undivided and vigorous support, and that nothing shall be wanting on our part, as honorable men, to secure their election.

Resolved, That we are utterly opposed to bringing the names of the State Presidents before the public, and that we will not, under any circumstances, be guilty of such a course, though our leaders then now, in the interest of the cause, would have us do so.

Resolved, That our Public Schools must and shall be Public Schools in fact, open alike to all, free for the humanity, and the highest; that education and virtue are the guardian of the Republic; and that her Common Schools strengthen her noble Jewels.

Resolved, That we look with deep anxiety to the coming election; that we will lay aside our private preferences and count now, as we came in 1840, unanimous and enthusiastic supporters of the Whig Party. We do not wish to support the Convict in any way.

Resolved, That we are unanimous in favor of the coming contest while their country, their honor, and their
dearest rights, demand that they should gallantly rush
onward with the field for principle, for virtue, and for
dread.

Resolved, That we do approve the nomination of Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin; that our Senatorial Convention has proved itself worthy of our highest
trust; that our Candidates honor alike our party and our
City, and that we will evince our feelings on Wednesday
next, in the ballot box, by being the foremost in the cause of the Whig Party, and none other.

On motion, a Vigilance Committee was appointed.

On motion, Resolved, That this proceeding of this meeting be published in the Whig Papers.

JACOB ACKER, Chairman.

ISAAC DAYTON, 22 Secretary.

GEO. W. TRUES. 22

The Executive Committee on State PRISON NOMINATIONS. report that they have addressed Circulars to the Candidates of the two great political parties and received satisfactory answers from the following named gentlemen:

Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin,

John C. Haslett, John Goger, Jr.,

Richard F. Carman, Nathaniel G. Bradford,

Louis W. Stevens, Charles M. Graham, Jr.,

Cyrus Chemey, Horace St. John,

Richard E. Mount, William Jones, and

Ellington G. Baldwin, were unanimously adopted.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted—Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that the Democratic Wing Committee, in nominating the ticket headed Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin, for Senators and Members of Assembly, selected Joseph Tucker for the Assembly of the State, deserve our hearty thanks, and we cheerfully tender them the same.

Resolved, That in our Candidates we have men opposed to the oppressive State Prison Monopoly which has so long held the industrious Mechanics of our city in their bondage; and to them we say, it depends upon you to support our ticket, if you would free yourselves from worse than Egyptian bondage.

Resolved, As the sense of this meeting, that the course of our friends who have not registered, securing the opportunity which to-morrow and Wednesday will offer to do so, and if we are faithful to ourselves on Wednesday night we may say, "We have met the enemy and they are ours."

The meeting was eloquently addressed by Messrs.

Frederick Pentz, Chairman.

James D. Hoag, Vice President.

Walter K. Penny, 22 Secretary.

Jonah Gerrick, 22

John Hinman, 22

Robert Hyndop, Jr., 22

John T. Anderson, 22

Abel T. Anderson, 22

Isaac Dayton, 22

GEO. W. TRUES. 22

The Executive Committee on State
PRISON NOMINATIONS. report that they have addressed Circulars to the Candidates of the two great political
parties and received satisfactory answers from the following named gentlemen:

Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin,

John C. Haslett, John Goger, Jr.,

Richard F. Carman, Nathaniel G. Bradford,

Louis W. Stevens, Charles M. Graham, Jr.,

Cyrus Chemey, Horace St. John,

Richard E. Mount, William Jones, and

Ellington G. Baldwin, were
unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we heartily respond to the nomination of Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin for Senators from this District; that the former, standing as he does, in the very front of the legal profession in this city, is presumed to be qualified for the station, which as a Senator,

he will be called to occupy in the Court of Errors, the highest tribunal of this State—a circumstance which

opponees in their nominations seem to have entirely overlooked;

and that the latter, for his private worth, his services in our City Councils, and his unwavering friendship towards the Friends of the city, is abundantly deserving of our cordial support.

Resolved, That we have the fullst confidence in the talents and integrity of those who have been nominated for the Assembly of this State, by the Wing County Convention, and that in giving our support to men who have

been selected from amongst ourselves we may be sure that they are men of good character and fit to represent us, and legitimate for the People, regardless of private interest or personal organization.

Resolved, That in the coming Election the Whigs of the Second Ward, in favor of the General and State Administrators, are requested to meet at the Tivoli House, corner of Varick and Charlton streets, on Tuesday evening, at 7 o'clock, to respond to the Nominations of Senators and

Members of Congress to be supported at the ensuing

election. By order of the Ward Committee.

JAS. T. M. BLEAKLEY, Chairman.

W. J. VAN BUREN, 22 Secretary.

H. A. STOCKBERGER, 22 Secretary.

At the Bowery Circus. a young Mr. McCollum appears to-night under the patronage of the Manager, who challenges any native protest against all the foreigners who have ever yet appeared. The elegance and good order of this concern are in every body's mouth,
and the crowd of truly respectable citizens who visit
the place may expect more gratification than
the last six nights of the Company's performance.

Resolved, That the ticket presented by the Whig Nominations Committee for the suffrages of their fellow citizens, meets with hearty approbation and concurrence, and viewing it as we do, as embracing and representing all the cardinal views of the great mechanic interest of our city, will use every means to insure its success. By order,

SILAS CHICKERING, President.

THOMAS C. BUCKS, 22 Vice Presidents.

George Gray, 22 Secretary.

J. S. Smith, 22

At the Bowery Circus. a young Mr. McCollum

appears to-night under the patronage of the Manager,

who challenges any native protest against all the foreigners who have ever yet appeared. The elegance

and good order of this concern are in every body's mouth,

and the crowd of truly respectable citizens who visit

the place may expect more gratification than

the last six nights of the Company's performance.

Resolved, That we heartily respond to the nomination

of Daniel Lord, Jr. and Morris Franklin for Senators from this District; that the former, standing as he does, in the very front of the legal profession in this city, is presumed to be qualified for the station, which as a Senator,

he will be called to occupy in the Court of Errors, the

highest tribunal of this State—a circumstance which

opponees in their nominations seem to have entirely overlooked;

and that the latter, for his private worth, his services